

Our policies on Slavery and Human Trafficking

Our anti-slavery policy reflects our commitment to behaving ethically and with integrity in all our business relationships. This helps ensure that slavery and human trafficking are not taking place anywhere in our business. We expect all those in our supply chain to comply with this approach and where possible we vet this.

Our due diligence during the reporting period

Prior to entering into relationships with suppliers, we ask for proof of ethical working practices including suitable anti-slavery and human trafficking policies and processes within their businesses and confirmation that they comply with the requirements of the Modern Slavery Act 2015.

Further steps

We will assess any instances of non-compliance by suppliers on a case-by-case basis and tailor any remedial action appropriately.

The statement has been approved by the DNDSM Ltd of Directors who will review and update it on an annual basis.
